- b. any purchase of shares from such shareholder or his/her related persons.

14.4 The General Meeting of Shareholders must discuss and vote on resolutions in respect of matters that have been properly placed on the meeting agenda.

Article 15 Proxies

15.1 Shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with law shall directly attend or appoint their proxies to attend. In case where more than one proxy is appointed, then the specific number of shares and the specific number of votes represented by each proxy must be specified.

15.2 The instrument appointing a proxy to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders must be made in writing on the form provided by the Company and must bear signatures in accordance with the following provisions:

- a. Appointment by a shareholder being an individual must bear the signatures of both that shareholder and the proxy;
- b. Appointment by an authorized representative of a shareholder being an organization must bear the signatures of the authorized representative, the legal representative of the shareholder and the proxy;
- c. In other cases the appointment must bear the signatures of the legal representative of the shareholder and the proxy.

Any proxy to attend a General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the written instrument of proxy prior to entering the meeting room.

15.3 Where an attorney on behalf of an appointor signs a written appointment of a proxy, the appointment of such proxy shall be deemed to be effective only if the written instrument appointing a proxy is presented with a letter of authorization to the attorney or a duly certified copy of such letter (in a case where such attorney has not been registered with the Company).

15.4 Except for the case stipulated in clause 15.3 of this Article, the voting slip of the proxy entitled to attend a meeting within the scope of his/her appointment shall remain effective in any one of the following cases:

- a. The appointor dies, or his capacity for civil acts is lost or is restricted;
- b. The appointor has rescinded the appointment of the proxy;
- c. The appointor has rescinded the authority of the person carrying out the appointment.

This clause shall not apply in a case where the Company receives a notice informing one of the above circumstances at least forty eight (48) hours prior to the time of opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or prior to the time of the adjourned meeting.

Article 16 Change of rights

- 16.1 A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders (in the cases stipulated in Article 14.2 relating to the shareholding capital of the Company being divided into different classes of shares) on change or waiver of special rights attached to a class of shares shall be passed only when the written consent of the holders of at least seventy five (75) per cent of the voting rights of the issued shares of such class is obtained.
- 16.2 The organization of such a meeting shall be valid if at least two (2) shareholders (or their proxies) are present and hold at least one-third (1/3) of the par value of the issued shares of such class. Where the number of attendees as required above is insufficient, the meeting shall be reconvened within a period of thirty (30) days and the holders of shares of such class (not depending on the number of holders and the number of shares) who are present in person or by proxy shall be considered to be a sufficient number of attendees. At each separate meeting mentioned above, the holders of the shares of such class who are present in person or by proxy may request a secret ballot and each holder or proxy attending the secret ballot shall have one vote corresponding to each share of such class.
- 16.3 The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be implemented in accordance with Articles 18 and 20.
- 16.4 Unless otherwise stipulated by the terms of an issue of shares, special rights attached to various classes of shares with preference rights regarding some or all issues on distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be changed when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 17 Convening General Meeting of Shareholders, Agenda and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 17.1 The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Management except for circumstances specified in Article 13.4b or 13.4c.
- 17.2 The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must carry out the following duties:
- a. Prepare a list of shareholders qualified to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days before the date the General Meeting Shareholders is conducted; and prepare the agenda and documents of the meeting in compliance with law and the rules of the Company;
 - b. Determine the time and venue for holding the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. Inform and send a notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting.
- 17.3 The notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders must comprise the agenda of the meeting and information relating to the issues to be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders. With respect to shareholders who have implemented the depository of shares, the notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders may be sent to the depository organization and at the same time shall be announced on the information network of the Stock Exchange/Securities Trading Centre, on the website of the Company, in a central newspaper or in a local newspaper where the Company's office is based. With respect to shareholders who have not implemented the depository of shares, the notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders may be sent to such shareholders by direct delivery or by registered courier to the registered address of the shareholders or to the address provided by such shareholders in order to receive information. Where the shareholders have notified the Company in writing of their fax number or e-mail address, the notice of the meeting may be sent to such fax number or e-mail address. Where the shareholders are employees of the Company, the notice of the meeting may be placed in a sealed envelope and sent directly to them at their work place. The notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be sent at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting (such period to be calculated from the date the notice is validly sent or delivered, the date the fees for delivery of the notice are paid, or the date the notice is put in a post-box). Where the Company has a website, the notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be posted on the website as well as being sent to the shareholders.

- 17.4 A shareholder or group of shareholders referred to in Article 11.3 of this Charter shall have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be made in writing and must be sent to the Company at least three (3) business days before the time of opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must contain the full names of the shareholders, the number and class of shares held by them, and the items proposed to be included on the agenda.
- 17.5 The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to reject a proposal mentioned in clause 4 of this Article in the following cases:
- a. The proposal was not sent on time, is insufficient, or is in relation to an irrelevant matter;
 - b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders had not held at least five (5) per cent of the ordinary shares for a consecutive period of six months;
 - c. The items proposed do not fall within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders for discussion and approval;
- 17.6 The Board of Management must prepare draft resolutions on each of the items on the agenda.
- 17.7 In a case where all shareholders representing one hundred (100) per cent of the voting shares attend the General Meeting of Shareholders in person or by proxy, the resolutions which are unanimously approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be deemed to be effective even if the General Meeting of Shareholders is not conducted in accordance with the procedures, or the items voted on were not included on the agenda.

Article 18 Conditions for Conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 18.1 The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders represent at least sixty five (65) per cent of the shares entitled to vote.
- 18.2 When the number of attendees required is insufficient within thirty (30) minutes from the time appointed to open the meeting, the meeting shall be reconvened within a period of thirty (30) days from the date appointed for the first General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders which is convened for a second time shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders and proxies represents at least fifty one (51) per cent of the shares entitled to vote.
- 18.3 When the second General Meeting of Shareholders can not take place because the required number of attendees is not present within thirty (30) minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may be convened for a third time within twenty (20) days from the date appointed for the second General Meeting of Shareholders. In such a case, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted irrespective of the number of attending shareholders or proxies, and shall be deemed valid and shall have the right to make decisions on issues which may have been approved at the first General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 18.4 Based on requests, the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders may make changes to the agenda attached to the invitation to the meeting in accordance with Article 17.3 of this Charter.

Article 19 Proceedings for conducting and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 19.1 On the date of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company must carry out procedures to register its shareholders and such registration shall continue until all shareholders entitled to attend and present at the meeting have been registered.
- 19.2 At the registration, the Company shall grant the shareholder or his/her proxy entitled to vote a voting card which states the number of registration, full name of the shareholder, full name of the proxy and the number of votes of such shareholder. When voting is conducted at the General Meeting of Shareholders, the votes in favor of the resolution shall be collected first, thereafter the votes against the resolution shall be collected, and finally the overall number of votes in favor of and against the resolution shall be counted for a final decision. The overall number of votes which agree, which do not agree, and abstentions shall be announced immediately after an issue is voted on. The General Meeting shall elect people from the attendees to be responsible to count the votes or to supervise the counting of votes, and if the General Meeting of Shareholders does not elect such people then the Chairman shall elect them. The number of members of a vote counting committee shall not exceed eleven people.
- 19.3 A shareholder who is late for the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be registered and shall have the right to immediately participate in voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Chairman shall not delay the General Meeting of Shareholders so that late shareholders may register, and the effectiveness of any voting which has already been conducted before the late shareholders attended shall not be affected.
- 19.4 The Chairman of the Board of Management shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders. In a case where the Chairman of the Board of Management is absent, the Deputy Chairman of the Board of Management or the person elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders. Where none of such persons are able to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders, the member of the Board of Management holding the highest position and who is present at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall demand a poll to elect the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders who need not necessarily be a member of the Board of Management. The Chairman, Deputy Chairman of the Board of Management or the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint a person to act as Secretary to prepare minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders. In the case of election of a Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the names of the nominees and the number of votes for each nominee must be announced.
- 19.5 Any decisions of the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the order and procedures or on events arising outside the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be final.
- 19.6 Even if sufficient attendees as required are present, the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall adjourn the General Meeting of Shareholders to another time or change the location of the meeting in his/her sole discretion without obtaining opinions of the General Meeting of Shareholders if the Chairman considers that (a) the location of the General Meeting of Shareholders fails to provide suitable seating for all attendees, (b) there is an attendee who disrupts or is likely to disrupt order at the meeting, or (c) an adjournment is necessary so that the work of the General Meeting of Shareholders will be duly carried out. In addition, the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders may adjourn a meeting upon agreement or request of the General Meeting of Shareholders even if sufficient attendees as required for such meeting are present. The maximum time for any adjournment of a meeting shall be three (03) days as from the date of the intended opening of the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders which is reconvened shall review the work which should have been legally carried out at the previous adjourned meeting.
- 19.7 Where the chairman adjourns or postpones a General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions in clause 19.6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from the attendees to replace the chairman in conducting the meeting until its completion, and the effectiveness of voting conducted at such meeting shall not be affected.

- 19.8 The Chairman or Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders may conduct activities which he/she thinks fit in order to direct the General Meeting of Shareholders in a valid and orderly manner and so that it reflects the wishes of the majority of attendees.
- 19.9 The Board of Management may require shareholders or their proxies entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders to be checked or subject to other security measures which the Board of Management considers appropriate. Where a shareholder or a proxy does not comply with the rule on checking or the security measures mentioned above, the Board of Management, after careful consideration, may reject or expel such shareholder or proxy from the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 19.10 The Board of Management, after careful consideration, may take the measures which it finds appropriate in order to:
- a. Adjust the number of attendees who are present at the official location of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b. Ensure safety for the attendees who are present;
 - c. Create favourable conditions for shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Board of Management shall have full power to change the above measures and take all of such measures when it considers necessary. The measures taken may include the issue of entry permits or the use of other forms of selection.

- 19.11 In a case where the Board of Management takes the above measures, the Board of Management may, when it makes a determination on the location of the meeting:
- a. Announce that the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted at the location as stated in the notice of the meeting where the chairman of the meeting shall be present ("The official Location of the Meeting");
 - b. Make arrangements so that shareholders or proxies who fail to attend the meeting in accordance with this Article or people who wish to attend the meeting but at a location different from the Official Location of the Meeting may still attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.

A notice on holding the General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be required to state the detailed measures taken in accordance with this Article.

- 19.12 In this Charter (unless the context otherwise requires), each shareholder shall be deemed to have attended the meeting at the Official Location of the Meeting.

The Company must hold a General Meeting of Shareholders at least once per year. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be held by way of collection of written opinions.

Article 20 Adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders
